

SARA'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

www.swedish-dollshouses.se

Once upon a time there was a small girl named Anna Sofia Andersson. She owned not one, but two dolls' houses. Anna Sofia had a secret. When there were no grown-ups about the dolls in the doll's house would come alive.

One evening Anna-Sofia had difficulty falling asleep. Suddenly Anna Sofia heard a noise from one of the dolls' houses.

"Happy birthday to you, happy birthday to you..." sang the dolls.

But where was Sarah? The doll mother, father and little brother looked around.

"Could she be in the wardrobe?" wondered mama as she looked in the tiny wardrobe.

"Could she be under the bed?" said papa, as he looked under the bed.

"Could she be under the carpet?" said her little brother in a squeaky voice as he slipped his head under the carpet.

"Here I am", shouted Sarah who had been teasing them all.

Can you see where Sarah has hidden herself?

Now the other doll's house also came alive.

"Splash!" Hanna jumped into the bathtub, so the water splashed all over.

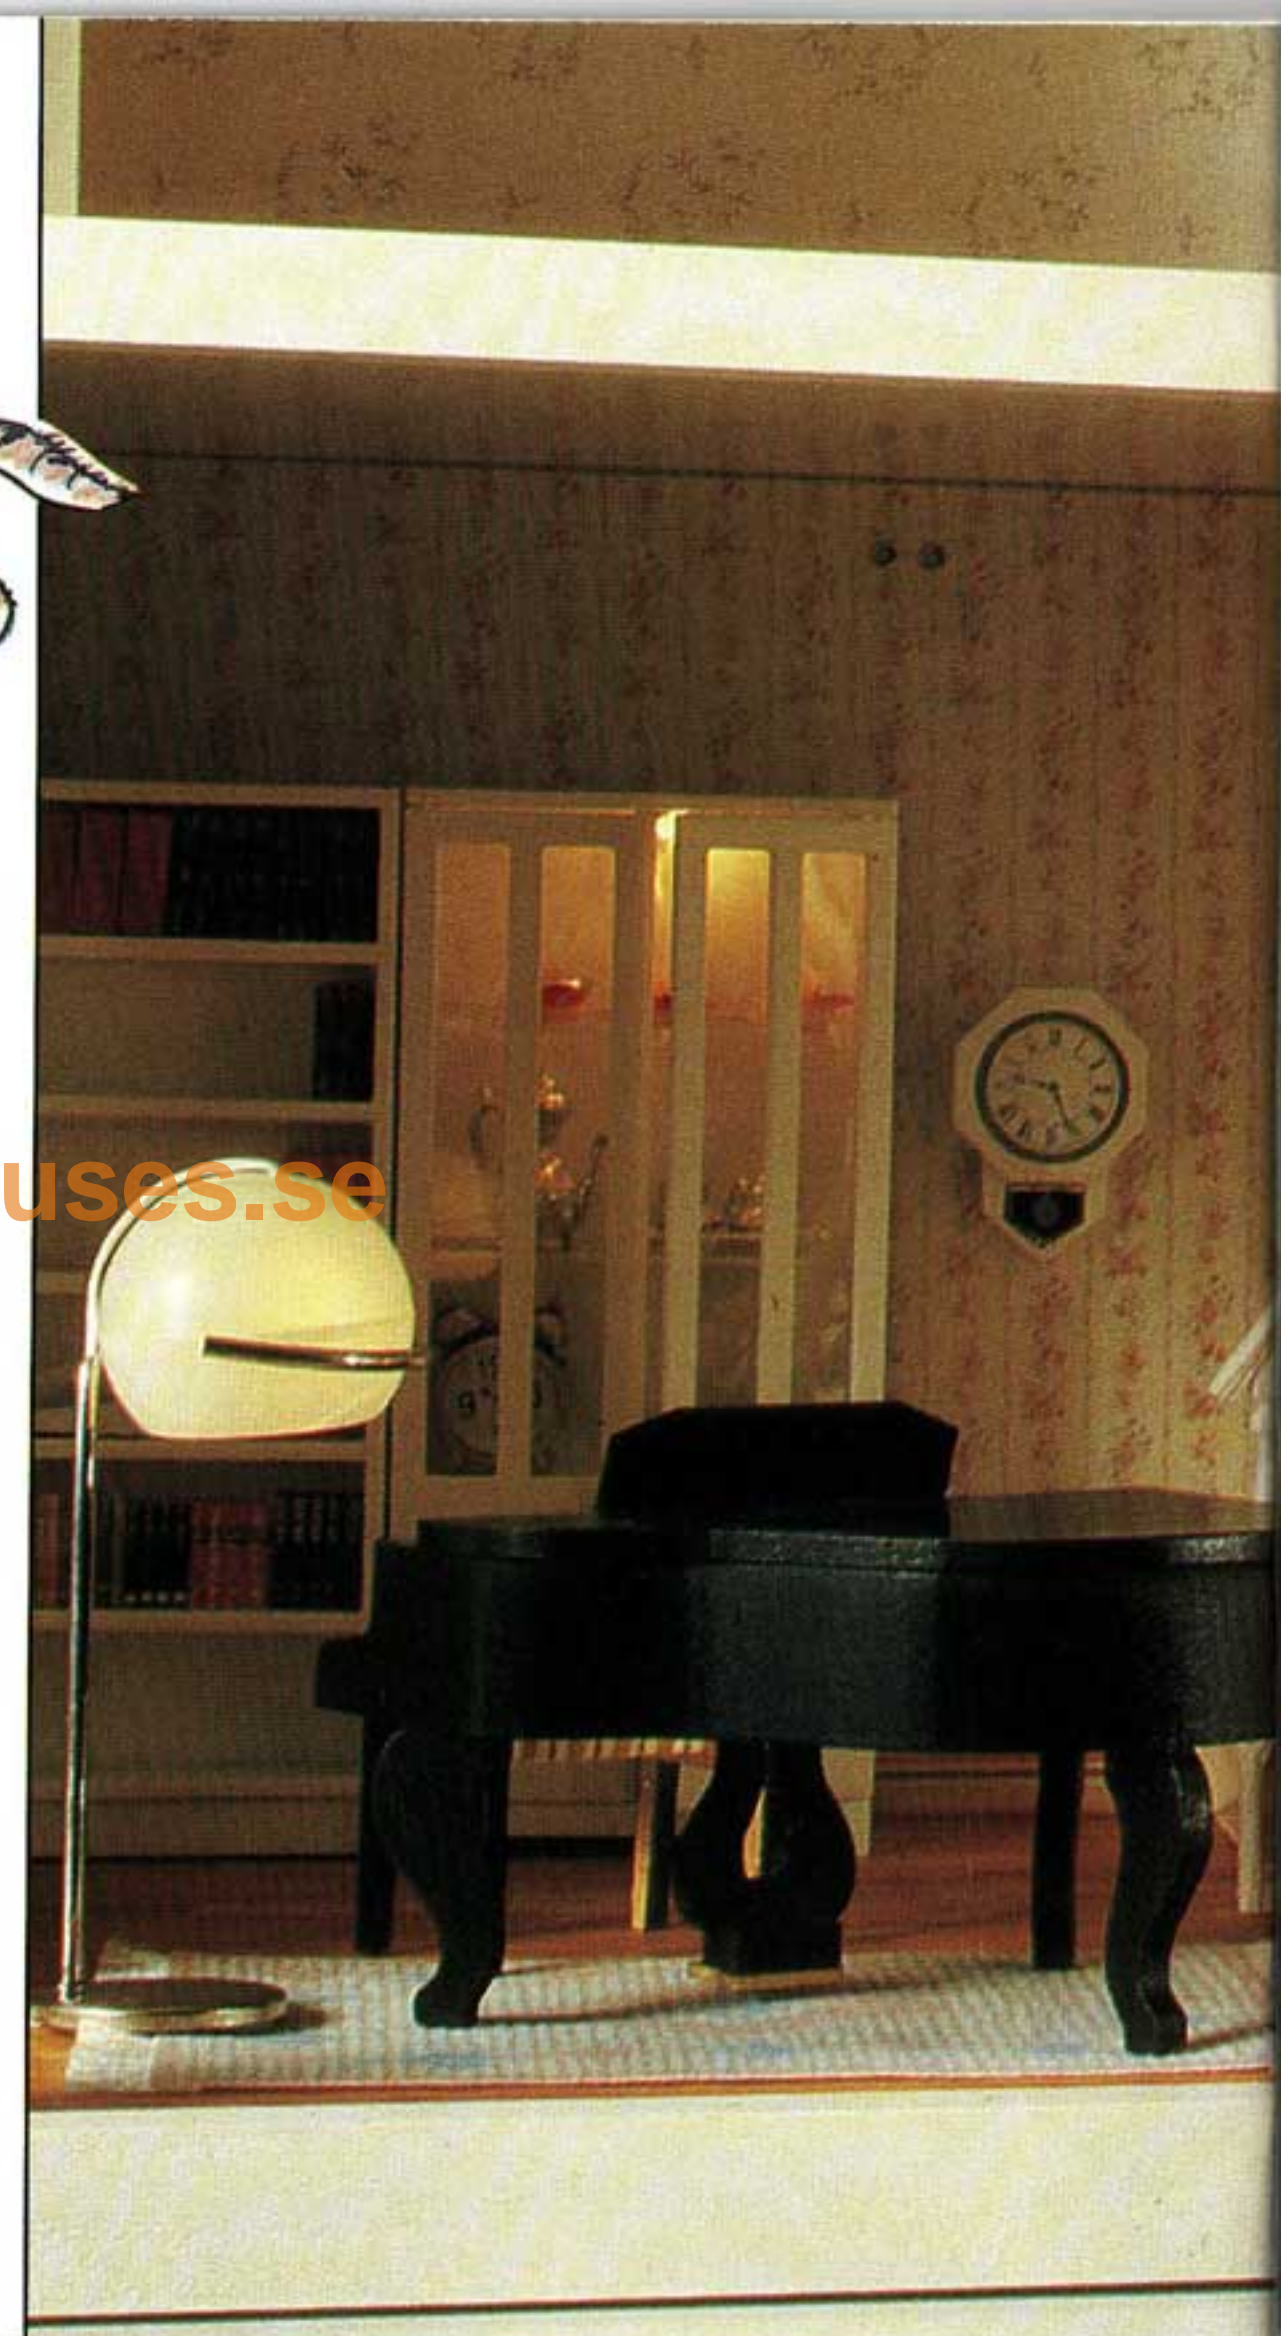

"Today I am invited to a birthday party at Sarah's", she told the kitten Misse. But Misse did not listen. She had found a ball to play with. Suddenly the ball flew into the air and landed in the toilet. Misse jumped in after the ball. PLOP.

"Oh Misse!" Hanna jumped out of her bath to save her kitten.

Outside the bathroom Philip, one of Hanna's brothers, was waiting. He also wanted to get ready for the birthday party. While he was waiting, he was sliding down the banister.

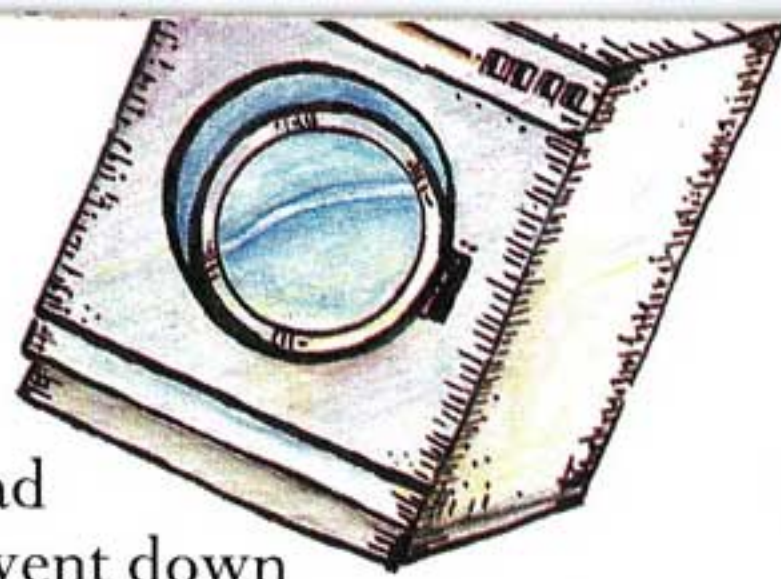

"Watch out! Here I come!" Philip said as he whizzed down. But alas things did not turn out so well, because he fell in the ...?

Can you see what he fell into?

When everybody had dressed up they went down to the garage to go out to the other doll's house.

"Where is Sarah's birthday present?" the doll mother wondered.

No one said anything. Hanna looked at Victor and Victor looked at Philip and he looked at Hanna.

"Victor, you had Sarah's present in the pocket of your jacket!"

"That jacket is in the wash", Victor answered.

"Oh no!" Then I have put it in the washing machine!!"
The mother ran into the laundry room. There was the jacket!
It was turning round and round in the washing machine!!

"What can we do?"

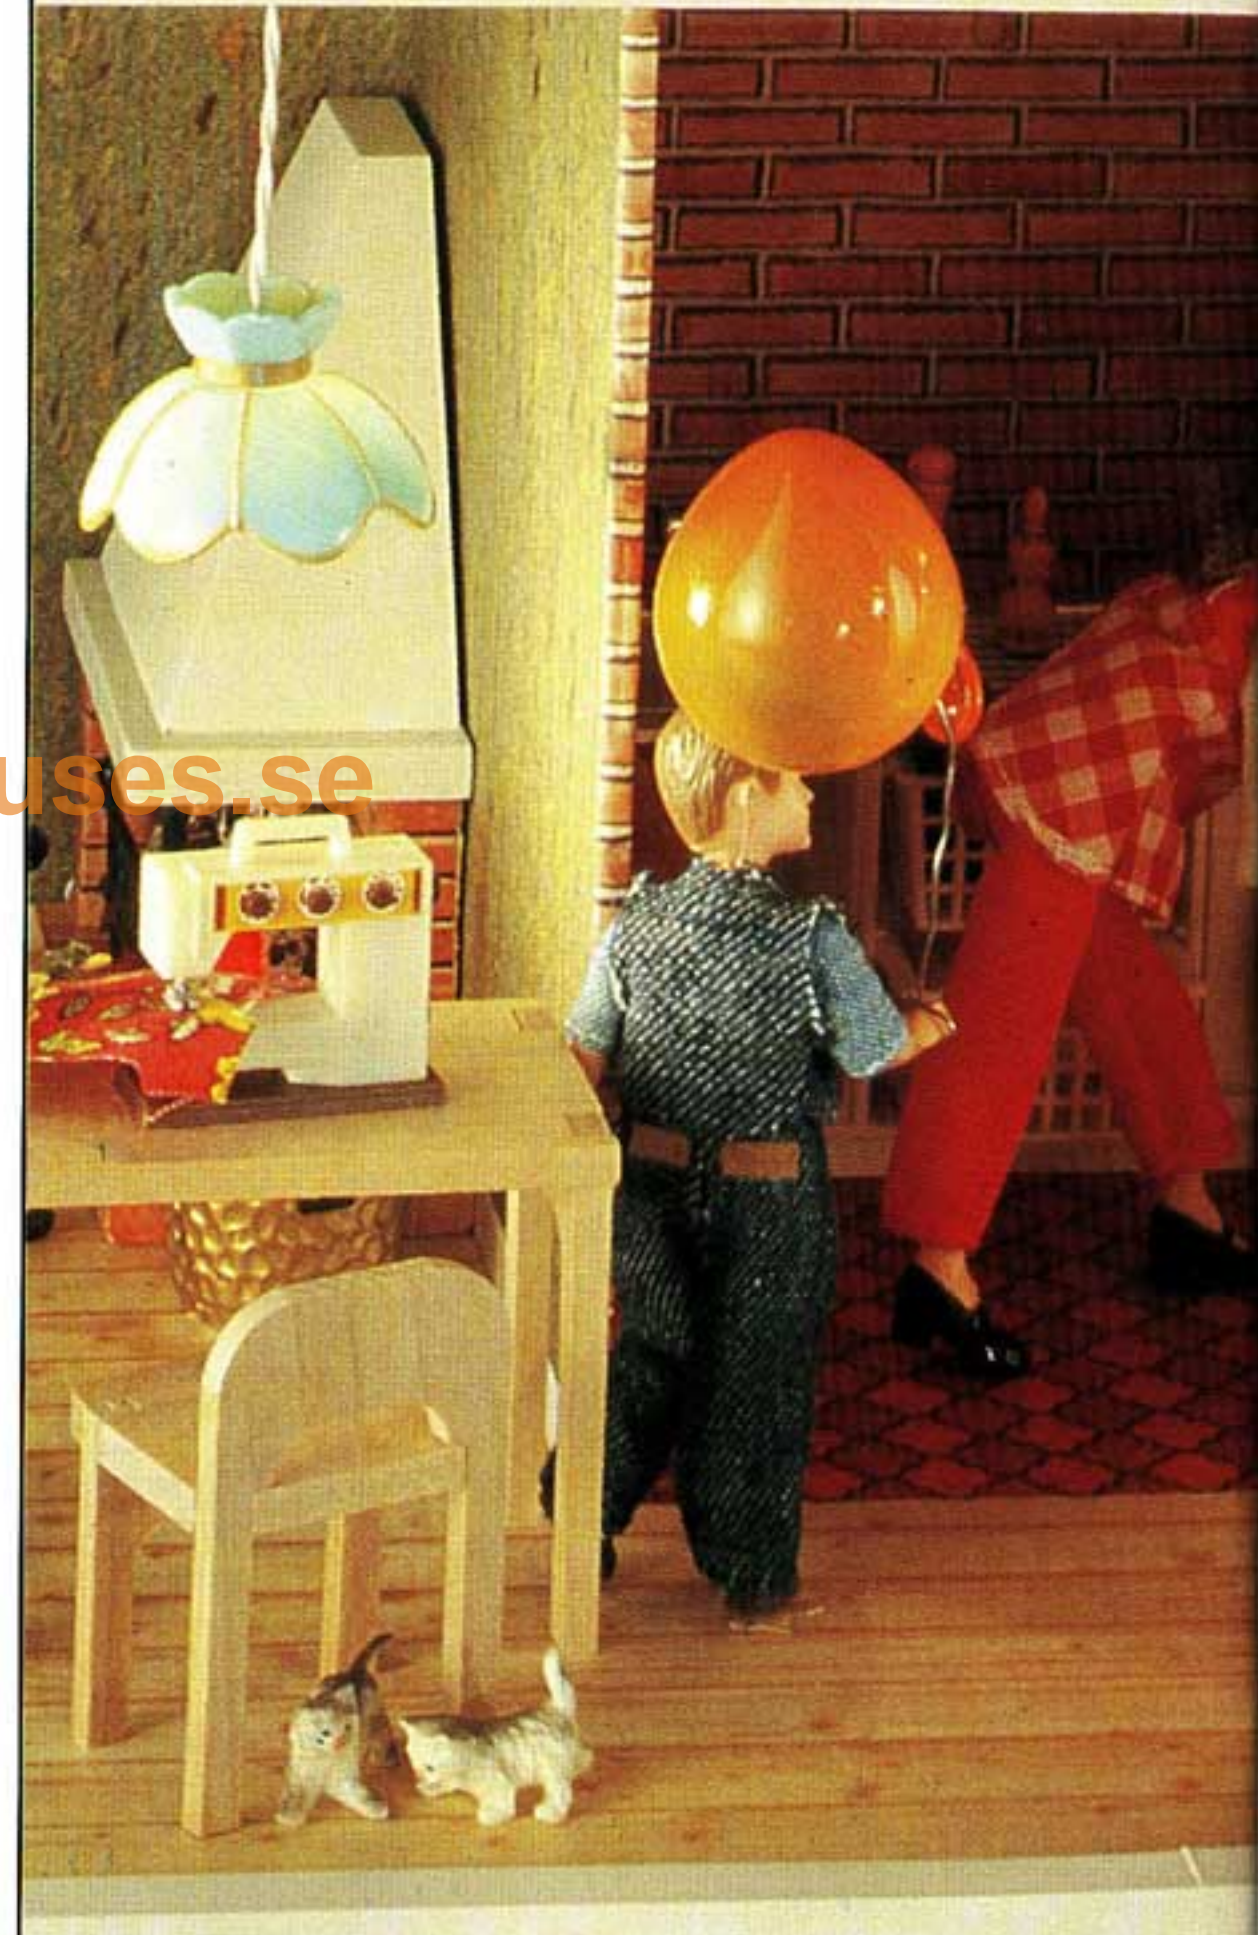

Victor started to laugh.

"What are you laughing at?"

"Of course I took out the present before I put the jacket in the wash."

They looked for a long time before they finally found the present.

Can you see where Victor placed the present?

But as if there had not been enough searching, Sarah's mother started the birthday party by hiding the cake-slice. Everyone had to help look for it before they could start eating.

"Tell me when I'm getting close?" Hanna asked.

"You're close", answered Sarah's mother.

"You're getting warm", she said later, when they started to come closer to the kitchen.

Everybody ran to the kitchen to look for it. They looked everywhere till Victor opened the cutlery drawer. And, there was the cake-slice! Sarah's mother had been so clever! The cake-slice had been where cake-slices are usually kept.

Now they could start eating the birthday cake and they started to eat immediately because dolls like birthday cakes as much as both you and I do.

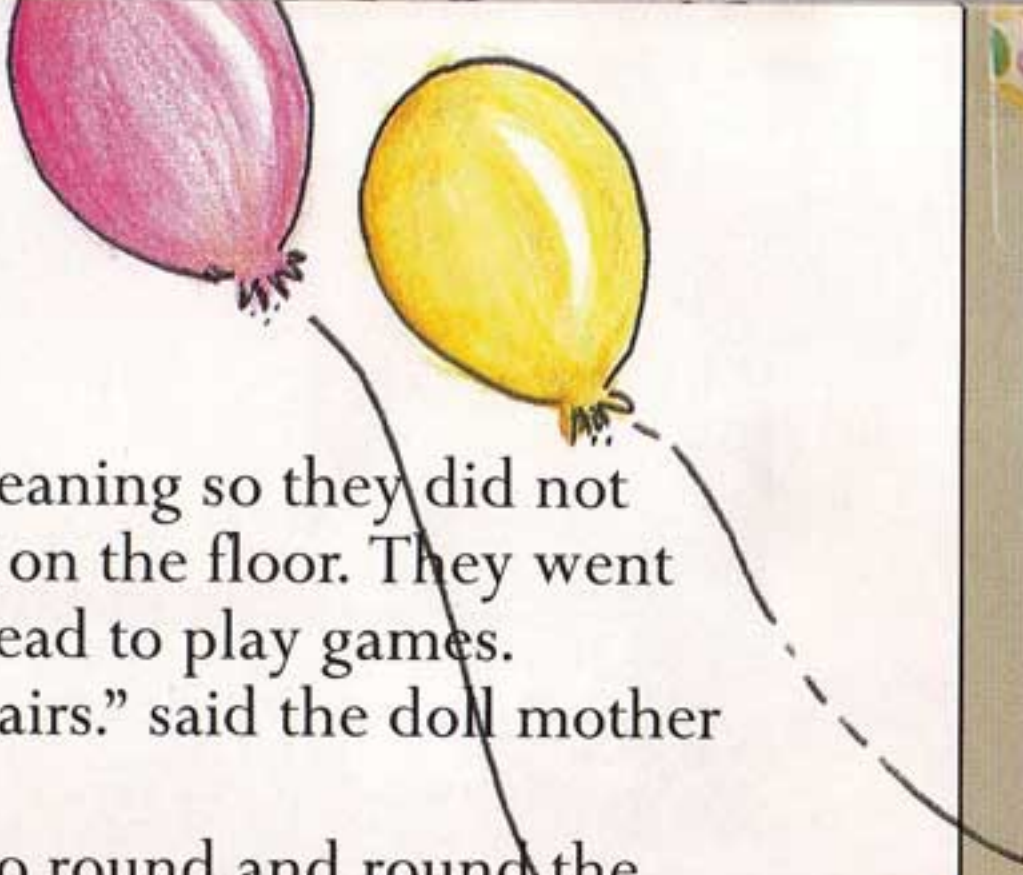

Then Sarah opened her birthday present. Can you guess what it was? A beautiful bracelet made of pure gold. Sarah was so happy that she danced around and knocked the cake onto the floor.

Dolls are quite bad at cleaning so they did not bother about the cake on the floor. They went to the other room instead to play games.

“Let’s start with Musical Chairs.” said the doll mother and turned on the stereo.

All the children started to go round and round the chairs which were placed in a circle.

Suddenly Anna Sofia’s mother opened the door.

“My little darling, you are lying here all by yourself.”

The dolls in the doll’s house were quiet and still as they always appear to grown-ups.

“And HOW did you get all those cake crumbs in the doll’s house?”

Anna Sofia did not give away her secret to her mother. She could not say that the dolls were in the middle of a birthday party of their own, could she? And if she has still not told anybody, then there are only you and Anna Sofia Anderson that know that there is a lot more life in a doll’s house than you can imagine!
